THE TEN NEW REGIMENTS.

Order for Their Enlistment to Be Issued To-Day.

WASHINGTON, July 5.-An order directing the enlistment of ten new regiments of volunteer infantry was completed this afternoon, and will be issued to-morrow. The order was drafted after n conference this afternoon between the President and Adjutant-General Corbin, and directs the recruiting officers to enlist men under the law passed March 2, 1899. These regiments are to be numbered from what will be done at the meeting 25 to 35, thus retaining the continuity of the present infantry organization.

THE FIRST COLONEL. Major Edmund Rice, Third Infantry, was to-day appointed colonel of the Twenty-sixth Regiment, the first selec-

WASHINGTON, July 5 .- Senator Mc-Laurin, of South Carolina, was at the White House to-day, in the interest of some applicants for commissions in the new military organization. He was giver to understand that the President would apportion the officers among the severa States in the proportion of a captain and first lieutenant for each State, irre spective of politics. The higher officers, as has already been intimated, are to b taken largely from the regular establish ment. It is understood that a strong effort will be made to reserve the second ileu tenancies for the non-commissioned officers who have made good records in active service, both with the regulars and the volunteers.

OPENING HYMNS.

Promptly at 7:30 the comparative silene was broken by the swelling strains of "The Son of God Goes Forth to War," followed by "There Shall He Showers of Blessing," "Onward, Christian Soldiers," etc., in all of which the great cowd anthusiastically joined.

Devotional exercises were led by the Rev. J. G. Butler, of Washington. The welcome of the local committee was ex nded by William H. Strong, its chairman. Rev. Charles Newman eloquently welcomed the convention on behalf of the Detroit pastors, and Mayor Maybury, on behalf of the city of Detroit, Sordially welcomed the Endeavorers. In conclusion, he said: "What a marvel of growth has been yours. Founded and led by one in whose features there dwells not even the premonition of increasing years; his eye undimmed an his natural strength unabated, he jour neys at the head of his numerous and triumphant family toward the Holy Land. formed, which, according to the physicians, would have caused his death in a short time.

Mr. Foster has gone to Cleveland taking the photograph with him. With it as a guide he will be operated on in a Cleveland hospital.

The apparatus used in taking the picture consisted of a rubber tube one eighth of an inch in diameter and about three feet long. At the end of the tube was a rubber bulb, the walls of which were as thin as it was possible to make them, giving the bulb, when inflated, the appearance of a toy balloon. The interior of the bulb was coated with a photographic emulsion, and acted as the plate on which the picture was taken.

The patient swallowed the bulb, which was then inflated by means of air until the bulb entirely filled the stomach, its flexible sides conforming to the walls of the stomach. An X-ray exposure was then made, the tube withdrawn, and the picture on the thin rubber bulb was developed as in ordinary X-ray photographs.

Her visible distress to-day was a feast

Her visible distress to-day was a feast for these ghouls, who, however, were speedily dispersed by a squad of gen-darmes. The latter finally barred the two streets leading to the portal of the prison. Just opposite the prison and overlook-ing the window of the cell of Captain Dreyfus and the court-yard is a tannery. This has been a favorite place of varies. This has been a favorite place of vantage for a number of photographers, who have taken snan-shots of every arrival and departure, and also, when possible, of incidents occurring inside the prison yard. To-day the police affixed a notice over the tannery entrance, probabiling the en-try there of any one except on business connected with the tannery. This mea-sure has aroused considerable comment, but the owner of the tannery will probably find it prudent not to ignore the
